

Please save our right to silence and sanity. Cells phone use one airplanes, and in other public places, destroy the space for others who share it. It's like a loud radio...rap or anything, at the beach where you've efforted to go for the sustance of nature, as undisturbed as possible.

Please support the respect of mutual space shared, including the air and sound space of airplanes.

Barbara
Corte Marder, California